SUNDAY BIBLE STUDY

For Reformation Sunday, we will have a one-session Bible study class on Christian Freedom, an important concept related to the Lutheran Reformation. This lesson was left over from a past class that was offered just as COVID lockdowns required us to cancel public worship and Bible study for a time in 2020. Our study of Christian Freedom will show us why it is so important to refrain from making "rules" where God has not, but also how we exercise our freedom as Christians with wisdom and discernment. Class will meet at 10:30 a.m. in the Timothy Room.

In November and December, we will embark on a study called Heaven and Hell: Eternal Life, Eternal Punishment. As we enter a time in the Church Year when we discuss issues such as death, the final judgment, and eternal life, our Sunday Bible study will delve deeper into these topics, clarifying the Bible's message and bringing us comfort as we think about the life that awaits God's people after this life. We hope you'll join us for this study led by Pastor Strey in the Timothy Room on Sundays beginning at 9:25 a.m.

MEDITATIONS

The Meditations devotion book is available on the table in the Gathering Area. If you care to contribute to the $3.75 cost, you may place your donation in the box.

JOIN COMMITTEE SURVEY

On Sunday, ushers will be handing out a Hobby/Fellowship survey to all COL members. The Join Committee is hoping to connect people with similar interests, so they can enjoy those activities together. You are asked to please fill out a form and then place it in the basket in the lobby. More forms are available there also.

THANKSGIVING WORSHIP

Our annual Thanksgiving Day service will be held on Thursday morning, November 24, at 9:00 a.m.

THURSDAY SERVICES

Our Thursday evening services will continue through November 17. (Our Thursday services are slightly simplified versions of the upcoming Sunday's service, with the same sermon, Bible readings, and hymns.) Thursday services are postponed from Thanksgiving to New Year's Day, since there are other midweek worship opportunities offered during that time of the year. The Thursday services will then resume in the New Year on January 5, 2023.
