From Principal Stoltz

We have a lot to be thankful for as we head into week four of the school year.

Here are a few items to note in the next week or so.

1. We will be hosting our annual cross country meet on Wednesday, September 14. If you could volunteer to help out that would be great. Please contact the office and let us know how you can help.

2. Finally, we are planning a “Trunk or Treat” for October 21, so keep your eyes peeled for more details in the next couple of weeks.

Picture Day

Lifetouch Picture Day is Monday, September 19. Order forms have already been sent home, but you may get another one from the office if you need it. You may also order online at mylifetouch.com and use our ID number: EVTTWSP36. The order forms must be brought back to the classroom by picture day.

Grandparents' Day

Remember to turn in the registration forms for Grandparents Day. They are due this week. Contact the school office if another one is needed. Desserts and other goodies will be served that day as well. Use this signupgenius link and see what is still needed. Help with cleanup would also be greatly appreciated.

Church Singing

Thank you to grades 2-4 for singing the opening hymn in church yesterday. What a wonderful message of God's love and protection. On Sunday, September 25, grades 5-8 sing in the 10:30 a.m. service. The schedule for the year can be followed by using this link. If a paper copy is wanted, please contact the school.

Scrip This Week

Raise Right orders will be placed this week. There are multiple back to school specials including Kwik Trip increasing to 9% for the month of September. Raise Daze with extra special promotions take place on Thursday and Friday, September 15 and 16. (Sneak peek happens on Wednesday.) There are 100's of bonuses up to 20% but only on E-Gift cards and reloadable gift cards. CC News

COL to host the COLTS Invitational for the 8th year on Wednesday, September 14, at Heritage Park across the street from school. Much volunteer help is needed to make this meet a success. Please contact Dawn Schaezner or Belinda Matter if you'd like to help. Three races for the CC athletes begin at 4:10 p.m. A fun run for anyone follows these three races. Come out and cheer on our Colts and consider volunteering to help.

Colts Run Well at First Meet

The CC Teams ran in the Pilgrim Wildcat Invitation last Wednesday on a warm/hot humid day. This meet combined all runners from 3rd through 8th grade so our younger boys team had their work cut out for them. There were 276 boys in their race. The boys finished in 17th of 25 teams. For the second year in a row the girls found themselves in a battle with Morning Star for the 2nd place trophy. Five runners scored in this meet. Our top five girls earned 59 points by placing 6th, 10th 13th, 14th and 16th of 239 participants in a 33 second window. Morning Star earned 63 points. St. John's Tosa took first with 39 points. There were 21 girls' teams. Eight of our 22 athletes also placed in the top 6 in their grades two of which earned medals. Twelve personal 1.5 mile records were set for the Colts including a new school record for the girls. The athletes hope to own their home course on Wednesday and would love some home fan support for their 2nd race of the season. They'll cheer for you in the fun run!!!

5K-First Grade News

This week in our Bible lessons we are learning how Jesus obeyed when he was 12 years old. Our second lesson we are learning about John the Baptist and his work of getting people ready for Jesus.

The Kindergartners are beginning to blend two and three sounds to make words. This week we are also learning two sight words: The and A.

In Art the kindergartners and first graders have been observing apples. We have experimented with colors as we painted some apples we traced on paper. We will cut them out to create a picture.

First graders are exploring different neighborhoods in their reading stories this week.

Remember book orders are due September 16.

Second-Third Grade News

Second and third grade will be wrapping up several art projects relating to the artwork of Gustav Klimt. We made a three-dimensional tree of life, tried etching and will be working with repeating patterns.

This week in our classroom we will begin using our reward cards to earn prizes from our prize box. We will fill in boxes for having our assignment notebooks signed, work done on time and other positive habits and choices.

Thank you to all of the students who joined us to sing in worship on Sunday. We received many compliments for how beautiful your voices were raised in song.

Fourth Grade News

The students did the bookkeeping for their first paychecks. This included first setting aside an offering to God and then paying the rent. Now the work continues with classwork, daily jobs, and earning bonuses rather than fines.

Classes move forward this week with a new reading story, working on pattern one in grammar, and starting to write a three-point expository. In Bible study, the students will hear about 12 year-old Jesus and the work of John the Baptist. Memory treasures are Ephesians 6:1, Hymn 784, and John 1:29. This week's spelling test is on Friday. It covers works with long and short i sounds. Another busy week growing wiser together.

Fifth-Sixth Grade News

Happy week 4 of school! This week in Catechism, we are studying the Creation of all things and then God's creation of man. In Science, we are studying invertebrate and vertebrate animals, and comparing vertebrates in how they have similar aspects. Also to keep on your radar, 5th-8th Grade sings for the 10:30 a.m. service on September 25, which is a little less than two weeks away. Art, we are finishing up our American flag paintings (which are turning out real nice). God bless your week!

Seventh-Eighth Grade News

We are back from our long weekend and are ready to start another exciting week of school. A few highlights of the week include the first Cross Country meet. Several students in our class participated including Hayley, Jayden, and Ava S. Team managers from our class are Kaylee, Micah, and Ava N. Congratulations to the girls' team for a second-place finish! Izzie is also playing volleyball with Christ Alone.
